

Remedying Discrimination: A Symposium on the Ontario Human Rights Review

Friday, January 25, 2013

Room 1014, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University

PROGRAM

8:30 Registration and Coffee

8:50 Welcome

Dean Lorne Sossin, Osgoode Hall Law School

9:00 Overview of the Pinto Report (Ontario Human Rights Review 2012)

Andrew Pinto, Pinto Wray James LLP

Commentators:

Raj Anand, Weir Foulds LLP and McMurtry Visiting Clinical Fellow, Osgoode Hall Law School

Mary Cornish, Cavalluzzo Hayes Shilton McIntyre & Cornish LLP - “Moving Beyond a Narrow Focus on the Adjudication System:
Challenging Governments and Other Duty Bearers To Pro-Actively Enforce Human Rights”

10:30 Refreshment break

10:45 The 2006 Amendments to the Human Rights Code and the Promotion of Access to Justice

Ranjan Agarwal, Bennett Jones LLP

Faisal Bhabha, Assistant Professor, Osgoode Hall Law School

Lorne Sossin, Dean, Osgoode Hall Law School
"Human Rights, Access to Justice & Innovation"

12:15 Lunch

1:30 Measuring Outcomes after the 2006 Amendments to the Human Rights Code

Moderator: Sonia Lawrence, Associate Professor, Osgoode Hall Law School

Fay Faraday, Faraday Law, and McMurtry Visiting Clinical Fellow, Osgoode Hall Law School - "Building a Human Rights Culture"

Lesley Jacobs, Professor of Law and Society and Political Science, York University, and Academic Director, Canadian Forum on Civil Justice

Bruce Ryder, Associate Professor and Academic Director, Anti-Discrimination Intensive Program, Osgoode Hall Law School -
"Leading the Way: HRTO Jurisprudence in a National Perspective"

3:00 Public portion of symposium concludes

3:15 Workshop for Speakers and Invited Participants

5:00 Workshop concludes